

Andalusia/al-Andalus: Judaism, Islam and Christianity, pt.II

ATTENTION: This is a temporary syllabus; there might be slight changes in the final version. There are no books to purchase; all readings will be posted online.

- 1. Introduction and rapid review of the Fall Semestre
- 2. Muslim Growth/Jewish Growth: Muslim dynasties (Umayyad, Abbasid, Fatimid)
- 3. Umayyad Empire Goes West: Umayyad Emirate of Cordoba
- 4. " : Multi-religious flourishing of Cordoba and its aesthetic
- 5. Umayyad Caliphate of al-Andalus
- 6. " : Mozarabic language, Jewish literature, aljamiado, Andalusian Arabic literature: Jewish/Christian/Muslim intertextualities
- 7. Almoravids, Almohads?: Shifts in cultural and religious dynamics?
- 8. Ibn Arabi and Maimonides: Transitional figures?
- 9. Ecology, Agriculture, Science, and the Healing Arts in al-Andalus
- 10. Sound and Space in the Mystic Hearts of al-Andalus
- 11. "
- 12. The Sultanate of Granada
- 13. Reconquista, Inquisition (Spain, Portugal, India, Brazil): 'Moriscos', "conversos", and fictions of purity and passing in al-Andalus and architecture of 'race', gender, sexuality, religion in the Americas
- 14. What's in a Name? Jewish and Muslim names from al-Andalus
- 15. al-Andalus, the sequel: The Ottoman Empire? Lessons from Bosnia